Fearless and outspoken in the treatment of all public questions and firmly maintaining what they believe to be right, they will avoid intolerance and make their appeal to the understanding rather than to prejudice. The Presidential election and the important issues involved—the proceedings of Congress and of our State Legislature,—the great activity and improvement in all the industrial and business departments of the country, will make the coming year one of the most exciting and important in the history of the country, and the WHIG AND COURIER congratulates itself that the Republican Party of the Union will enter the year 1880 united upon the platform of Principles which this paper has steadfastly maintained while the many watered.
THE WHIG AND COURIER will be sent by mail postage paid, at the following rates, payable in advance:

To protect the public against Imitations and Fraud we caution all purchasers of BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTERS
to see that the word CAPCINE on the label is correctly spelled. Do not allow some other plaster to be palmed off under a similar sounding name, with the assurance that it is the same thing or as good. Bear in mind that the only object such venders can have is the fact that they can buy imitations at the prices less than that of the genuine, and they hope by this substitution to gain a small additional profit.

SEASONABLE HINTS.
Some of our Penobscot farmers would be astonished should they visit the towns near Boston, where market gardening is followed, to witness the liberal quantities of dressing that is applied to an acre of land. Six hundred dollars worth of manure is frequently applied to a single acre, and two or three hundred dollar's worth per acre is a common thing among market gardeners and they find it profitable. We often hear farmers complain that they get no paying crops from their farms after applying twenty cords to thirty-five or forty acres.
All exchange says: Nature cannot be coaxed or driven into giving a good crop when the land is in a poor condition.
Let every farmer consider this matter of the proper manuring of lands, whether he intends to raise a few beets, onions, or almost any other crop. It is true that beans and many other crops would not need to be put upon land as rich as that required by roots and ordinary market gardening. The farmer must use discretion in the matter. Should not by any means advise the use of six hundred dollars' worth of dressing to the acre in any one year for any crop. What we do insist upon, if money is to be made by farming, is the use of more dressing than is commonly applied by country farmers.
It is a good plan to cart over manure at this season of the year and mix in plaster.
Now is the time to mend your carts, plows and rakes.
Prepare your hot-beds, any old sash will do, and start tomatoes, cabbages, &c. Early peas, potatoes and onions ought to go into the ground by the middle of April. Farmers, give more attention to the garden, it is the gem of the farm.
Strive to make farming more attractive to your children. Encourage them to make experiments, and furnish them with every facility to make the most of their labor. Lay out your skill and theirs on the garden and orchard and rear a new Eden around your home.
The spring, in this part of our country is short, and it is usually over crowded with work. Farmers neglect to cart out their manure early, and as a consequence, the potatoes and oats that flourish best in cool weather, are forced to mature in the heat of dog-days and rot, rust, and smut are often the result of late sowing and planting. Don't let any reader of the WHIG AND COURIER get caught napping this year. Take time by the forelock. Something can be done at this season to help on the spring work. A good part of the manure can be carted now much better than in planting time.
It is well established now, that yard manure prepared with plaster, muck, or loam, does not lose much of its value when piled up in winter or early spring.
If a meadow is to be dressed there is no better time to do it.
During this month, all tender trees and shrubs will be liable to injury from frost. In the winter they were in so deep a slumber, that there was little danger of their being awakened by the brightest and warmest sunshine. But now they are ready to be aroused—the sun is higher in the heavens and tender vegetation is liable to injury. A very light covering will answer, such as a few boughs or a little straw.

THE PAINTINGS AND THE PAINTER OF THE CAPITOL ROTUNDA.
Mrs. Clemmer writes from Washington to the Independent: On entering the Rotunda and looking up, one's face seems drawn toward a great swirl of high, impending clouds, out of which peer many ruddy goddesses and gods, who, on continued though straining inspection, bear a striking likeness to Franklin and other familiar heroes. This central painting of the dome, the heart of hearts of the capitol, has been variously criticised. No one can say it is not effective and not original. Here Brumidi's work is a combination of mythology and history, of allegory and fact combined. Above all, Brumidi tried to make it American.
The god Mercury, who on this high fresco of the dome stands for commerce, bears the face of Robert Morris. Grand Minerva, who should always be a woman of the most regnant type, alas! here wears the face of Benjamin Franklin, which, well for him, is not well for her. Here Brumidi metamorphosed the gods; but made an effective picture, though to certain minds some of its details seem ridiculous in their transformation. The coloring of this fresco is criticised by those who do not know that only nine colors could be used on this plastering, the lime in it being fatal to all others. The scaffold on which Brumidi painted this picture was drawn to this immense height from the floor, and here in the air, lying on his back, he painted it. The perspective, in itself wonderful, seeming to open a vista to the heavens, becomes marvellous when one recalls the position in which it was painted. Two years ago the gray blank of the plaster band binding the upper dome seemed suddenly to grow alert with living figures. The designs for this historical belt Brumidi drew as early as 1850, and waited till 1878 for the appropriation from Congress which enabled him to begin it. The devastations of war drew the minds of men further and further from the demands of historic art. After its close, if the great Congresses spent their political battles had allowed Brumidi to begin his last great work, he would not have gone down to his death leaving it unfinished. It was the last dear dream of his life to finish it. But the tired old hands at length dropped from the half-done task—the task that finished, would be a great legacy to a great nation; left unfinished because the men who represented it had been crudely, selfishly careless, if no more. It would take two more years to lead this procession or history around the dome, and to the very last Brumidi hoped to rally sufficiently to go back to finish the encircling frieze. But as his physical infirmities increased, in his own room, at home, he set to work to enlarge the cartoons from which the final picture was to be painted, to working size, so that the one who followed him would have nothing to do but follow his copy. Thus the day before his death he was at work on a cartoon of the Battle of Lexington. This historic girdle is to hold within it all the great events of American history from the landing of Columbus to the landing of the California Argonauts in 1849.
It was Brumidi's belief "that the discovery of the Pacific empire completed a cycle of national history." Thus he begins up the country the discovery of the country by Columbus. He gives us Montezuma in front of the great Mexican dial, Pizarro drawing a deed the through the sand, De Soto, Pocahontas, the landing of the Pilgrims, William Penn. Here his brush was laid down. Here the little scaffold clinging to the higher wall of the dome gave him up forever, and the wooden basket, which so long had borne him aloft, bore him downward for the last time.
The cartoons of Brumidi which are to be put on the frieze of the dome by another hand are Oglethorpe and the Indians, The Battle of Lexington, Surrender of Cornwallis, Decatur at Tripoli, The Death of Tecumseh, The Entrance of Scott into the City of Mexico, and The Discovery of Gold.
For nearly two years the absorbing centre of interest to visitors in the rotunda has been the human figure, dim in the high air, at work on a little scaffold clinging to the upper wall. The descent of Brumidi in the wooden basket, at three o'clock each afternoon, was the event of the day. He was an old man, having a thick mane of gray hair and a patriarchal beard. The width of his head seemed to lessen its height; yet it was high and his perceptive faculties the largest. His full eyes were set very wide apart, each side of a cogitative nose. His mouth, revealed by an open moustache, was firm and refined. He wore a military coat, and to strangers wore the air of reticence which well befits the aristocracy of genius. But his also was that impulse of quick response which belongs equally to genius when it needs it's own. He was cordial, charming; enthusiastic to all with whom he was in sympathy. He was cultivated in literature, could talk of Shakspeare, Dante, the old Italian and classic poets, and of historical art, by the hour. He had enthusiasm for many Americans. From a hundred places within the capitol the faces of American statesmen looked down upon posterity, painted by Brumidi. He had finished a portrait of Jefferson, and was painting the portrait of Henry Clay at the time of his death.
Vale, Brumidi! Another will take up thy brush and go on with thy great work; but he will not be Brumidi! He will not be thy life, thy love, thy touch; that was Roman, should glow from base to dome on this temple of our liberties; but better still that the soul, which was American, should inspire thy brush and make it dearer and dearer to our hearts than the gods of the past, the heroes of our own race and time.

There are reasons why the wife of a housekeeper should keep an account book. In the first place it would furnish interesting information of the number of pounds of sugar, spice, flour, meat, etc., that a family of a certain size consumes. How many know anything definite about these things? Again, such a record would suggest changes in the living in one way or another, and furnish a basis for calculation of the requirements for the coming year. We knew of a lady who went so far as to keep an account of the number of extra meals which she furnished in a year; and when it was announced the family were greatly surprised. A household account is a startling revealer of facts. As a matter of family history, a record should be kept—of course, the dates of births and deaths will be given in the record to be found in the family bible, but there are other things worthy of note that transpire in a family.

Republican District Convention.

The Republicans of the Fourth Congressional District of Maine, composed of the counties of Aroostook, Penobscot and Piscataquis, are requested to send delegates to a Convention to be held at the CITY HALL, in Bangor, on THURSDAY, March 11th, 1880, at 10 o'clock A. M.

for the purpose of choosing two Delegates and two Alternate Delegates to attend the REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION at Chicago, Thursday, June 3d.

Each city, town and plantation shall be entitled to one delegate, and for every seventy-five votes cast for Daniel F. Davis for Governor at the election of 1879, one delegate; and for each fraction of forty votes one additional delegate.

EZRA C. BRETT,
ELISHA W. SHAW,
LEWIS DE LAITE,
HENRY E. DOWNES,
CHAS. L. DUNNING,
S. A. PATTEN,
District Committee.

THE GRAND RESULT.

We congratulate our fellow-citizens of Bangor upon the glorious result of yesterday's election; we congratulate Mayor Brown upon his splendid majority of nearly a round thousand; and we congratulate the four Republican Aldermen, the fifteen Republican Councilmen and the Republican officers in five out of seven wards, upon the victory so gallantly won. Especially do we congratulate all the earnest and zealous men who labored to achieve this gratifying result.

It was a Republican victory in its broadest and highest sense, for while more or less Democratic votes were cast for Dr. Brown, and Mr. Wakefield's name was run on Democratic tickets, it is a well recognized fact that the public disgust at the revelations of the counting-out frauds and forgeries, had so completely demoralized the Fusion leaders here as elsewhere in the State, that they were unable to make any hopeful contest. The result of yesterday's election was a stinging rebuke to the foul conspiracy to steal control of the State, and the emphasis of that rebuke was increased by the fact that some Democrats helped to administer it. Undoubtedly Mayor Brown received quite a large number of votes on account of the high esteem in which he is personally held, but the great fundamental reason for the remarkable Republican sweep of yesterday, was the popular indignation with the shameless Fusion conspiracy that tampered with the most sacred rights of the people. That feeling pervades the whole State of Maine, and has found expression wherever the people have been summoned to the ballot.

The attempt of the Commercial to characterize the result as "a victory against Prohibition," is very foolish and will not deceive many. It was no such thing. As earnest friends of Prohibition as any in Maine voted and labored for the success of the Republican ticket yesterday, while it is equally certain that many Wakefield tickets were voted by the strongest opponents of that principle. The larger portion of the Republicans of Bangor did not believe that Prohibition was the principal issue in yesterday's election, and they were not convinced that they should take hold and help the Fusionists to carry Bangor, because a few worthy people thought the cause of temperance might be aided in that way.

Mayor Brown has received the largest majority ever given for a candidate at a contested municipal election in this city, although Mayor Hamlin was elected by 1,258 when he had no opponent in 1877. Considering the lack of contest to incite special exertion our friends did finely in all the wards, and especially in Wards 2 and 7 they made most gallant records. In the former the Fusionist Jennings was very nearly beaten, and in the latter Judge Humphrey only lacked three votes of an election, while the rest of the ticket was carried by the Republicans.

"It was a glorious victory," and we have already received the most cordial congratulations for Bangor from other portions of the State, which have not been disappointed in their expection of a ringing response from the Queen City of the East.

BIDDEFORD, TOO!

The popular tide is so strong that it has drowned out even the Fusionist headquarters at Biddeford, the home of Secretary Gove, who was so careful of the returns. Biddeford is the place to which the Fusion bogus Legislature was invited by the Fusion Mayor, with the assurance that there they would find a City Government in political sympathy with them. And now a Democratic reporter telegraphs that there "is no end to the corruption" in the Fusion crowd at Biddeford, and reluctantly announces some eleven hundred majority for a Republican Mayor with every ward Republican!

The Boston Post feelingly remarked on Monday: "More Maine elections to-day, and then, let us be thankful, no more for six months." So the Post does not like the sound of the Maine elections!

DISSOLUTION OF THE BRITISH PARLIAMENT.

A cable despatch from London, Monday states that the dissolution of Parliament has been announced for March 23. The announcement was received in the Commons with cheers. The London Post approves of the dissolution and says it is not only in England but also in Ireland that the result of the forthcoming elections will be watched anxiously. Immediately after announcement of dissolution Parnell was telegraphed to return.

The London Times says the time chosen for the dissolution is probably the most convenient to the country that could have been selected. It says the dangers which threaten the parliamentary government of England are very urgent and it is not clear that they may not be increased by the result of the appeal to constituencies.

Lord Beaconsfield has sent a manifesto to the Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, in which he says measures respecting the state of Ireland are about to be submitted for the Royal assent, and that the arts of agitators have been defeated by liberal and prudent measures which Parliament almost unanimously sanctioned.

Senator Bayard, of Delaware, on Monday, argued in favor of the appointment of Fitz-John Porter as Colonel of Infantry with back pay from the time he was cashiered. We believe Senator Bayard was never known to take the floor to advocate bestowing honors or extra pay upon any Union officer who was obnoxious to the rebels.

MORE CHEERING NEWS FROM IRELAND. A special from London March 8, says the news from Ireland is of the most encouraging character. The work of the relief committees has succeeded beyond the utmost sanguine anticipations and there is good reason to believe the point of danger is passed. It says Connemara is now the only section from which severe suffering is reported.

"Perley" telegraps the Journal that: "Senator Blaine's reception on Saturday evening was numerously and fashionably attended, Massachusetts being especially well represented by prominent men and fine looking ladies elegantly dressed."

Are Now Matters of General Interest,

And are Attracting Much Attention,

BOTH FROM SCIENTIFIC AND MEDICAL MEN.

The Following Article will be Read with Great Interest, Especially by Sufferers from Headache, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Paralysis and Indigestion.

Celery has only come into public notice within the last few years as a nervine, but scientific experiments and experience have proved beyond a doubt that it controls Nervous Irritation and periodic Nervous and Sick Headaches to a marked degree.

But a combination of the EXTRACT OF CELERY AND CHAMOMILE, which has been but recently introduced to the profession and the public by myself, has produced such marvellous results in curing nervousness and headache, and especially nervous and sick headaches, neuralgia, indigestion and sleeplessness, that it has excited public attention and newspaper comments, and, therefore, I give the following information to the public to avoid answering hundreds of letters of inquiry about them.

My Celery and Chamomile Pills, for the cure of headaches and nervousness, are prepared under my supervision, and are intended expressly to cure headaches, neuralgia, indigestion, sleeplessness and nervousness, and will cure any case where no organic disease of the brain or spinal cord exists. Hundreds of cases of many years' standing have been cured. No matter how chronic or obstinate the case may be, a permanent cure is morally certain. This statement is made after years of experience in their use in the general practice of medicine.

These pills are also valuable for school children who suffer from nervous headaches, caused by an overworked brain in their studies, and for all classes of hard brain-workers, whose overtaxed nervous centres need repair and sedation. Nervous tremor, weakness and paralysis are being daily cured by these pills. They correct costiveness, but are not purgative.

Directions on each box. Price 50 cents, or six boxes for $2.50 postage free to any address. No order filled unless accompanied by the money. For sale by all wholesale and retail druggists. Depot, No 108 North Eutaw street, Baltimore, Md. Boston Office, No. 6, Hamilton Place, opposite Park Street Church. By mail, 2 boxes for $1, postage free, at my risk.

EVEN BIDDEFORD REDEEMED.

A Democratic Reporter Wails over Fusion Corruption in the Home of Gove.

BIDDEFORD, March 8. Municipal poli- tics are in a muss here to-day. The Dem- ocrats on account of a disagreement among themselves and the Greenbackers and the selling out of their ward canvas- sers, which was discovered last Thursday, have refrained from voting, and have withdrawn the votes for their candidates from the polling places. The corruption in city politics seems to be endless.

Evening Despatch — Still Anxious to Explain how the Would-be Fusion Capital went Sweepingly Republican.

As announced this forenoon the election in Biddeford to-day has been a perfect farce from beginning. There has been a feeling of antagonism between the Demo- crats and Greenbackers of this city and many Democrats declared they would not support the candidate for Mayor on the Union ticket, but should vote and use their influence for the Republican candidate.— Regardless of these threats the ring power kept on in their original designs until last night when the matter culminated in the discovery that a portion of the canvassers of different wards had sold out their fel- lows and were working for candidates on the Republican ticket. The disgust of the Democrats was so great on the dis- covery of these things that they refused to vote.

A Complete Sweep—Eleven Hundred Majority and Every Ward Republi- can.

The total number of ballots last year was about 2,267, the Democratic can- didate for Mayor receiving a majority of 7. The whole number of ballots cast this year is about 1,500. The Republican candidate for Mayor, Hon. Chas. M. Moses, receiv- ing a majority of about 1,100. Every ward is also Republican.

STRANGE BUT WONDERFULLY TRUE.

People have limp'd around the earth,
Or sat and groaned beside the hearth,
Blaming the fate that gave them birth!
And gave them Corns and Bunions.

Many and various mixtures have been tried,
Sweet oil, perhaps, has been applied;
Or herbs gather'd from the mountain side;
But nothing used is pleasing.

When Dr. Briggs, with conscious pride,
And earnest zeal his mind applied,
The science deep to open wide,
Of soothing and of healing,

He took of many substances known
That would heal or still a groan,
And soon composed by skill alone
His miraculous Bunion Balsam.

Tormented with Bunion, Corn, or Bruise,
Thousand of sufferers heard the news,—
The remedy that meets their views
Is Dr. Briggs's Bunion Balsam.

Sold by Druggists.

UNNECESSARY TORTURES HAVE BEEN BORNE, from internal, bleeding, external and itching piles for ages, in all countries, by all classes of people. But a radical change is taking place. Thousands of these sufferers have found Dr. Briggs' Pile Remedies a never failing cure; and mil- lions more will avail themselves of them the moment they know of the rare merits of these great discoveries for alleviating and curing the terrible suffering from which comparatively few are exempt. Dr. Briggs' Pile Remedies are mild, safe and sure for the cure of internal, bleeding, ex- ternal and itching piles. Warranted as represented. Sold by Druggists.

Well, I declare, how dedo, Josh? I am so glad to see you; how is the old woman? She is right smart now, but she was awful bad tother day with her pesky bunions. She got some of Dr. Josiah Briggs' tre- mendous popular Bunion Balsam (at the drug store), and she is spry as a lobster ever since. Do tell, I must get some for mam, she can't wear a shoe to church; where did you get it? O, all the drug stores have got it, and they never saw the like. Folks from all parts of the country are after it, and are so delighted that they have already raised subscription to build a cobble stone monument for the inventor. Try it. Sold wholesale and retail by WM. E. MANN, F. J. TANEY, J. F. PATTEN and W. L. ALDEN, Bangor, Me.

WEST GREATWORKS FIRE COMPANY. The Jameson Fire Company No. 4, of West Greatworks, held their annual meet- ing at their engine house, Saturday eve- ning, at which time Arthur Jameson, Esq., one of the most honored, respected and energetic members, was elected President of the company as long as it exists as an organization. The following officers were also elected for the ensuing year: Fore- man, James Berryment; Assistant Fore- man, Freeman Pike; Clerk, C. C. Garland; Treasurer, J. B. Walker; Steward, Peter Curtis; First Pipeman, Llewellyn Oliver; Assistant Pipeman, H. A. Garland; Second Pipeman, Frank Gifford; Chief Waterman, Albert Wilson; Assistant Waterman, S. O. Howard; Foreman of Chemical, John Curran; Assistant of Chemical, L. A. Buffum. The condition in which their engine house is kept, the condition of their engine and the manner in which it has been handled, the members always being promptly at their posts ready for service, all go to show great interest and energy on the part of the company, which is de- serving of no small amount of praise.

THE BREWER DINNER. The ladies of Brewer interested in the new Congrega- tional vestry, gave a twenty-five cent din- ner yesterday to all who wished to favor them with their patronage, and as the town election was being held in the Town house near by and the town business, as usual, not being completed in the forenoon, they were well patronized by citizens from all parts of the town. The bill of fare con- tained many articles of food cooked in the most appetizing manner. The boiled cracker, plum and plain puddings made, cooked and served to the guests by Mrs. Joseph B. Burr, a lady over eighty-two years of age, were pronounced equal, if not superior, to any article upon the bill of fare, which was paying her a great com- pliment, which she fully appreciated. She stated that she remembers distinctly of having pounded crackers in an old fashion- ed salt mortar just 75 years ago for a Thanksgiving dinner, in her father's house in Hingham, Mass. Mrs. Burr has been an active and highly respected member of this society from its first organization, and her fine intellect is not the least impaired by age. The young ladies of the society also performed their duties admirably, and it will long be remembered as one of the most pleasant election days ever enjoyed in Brewer.

QUAIL FOR THIS VICINITY. It may be interesting to the sportsmen of this city and vicinity to know that four hundred of the two thousand six hundred quails which have been ordered from Italy for this State, have been engaged by private parties in this city, to be distributed in this locality on their arrival in May. As the funds necessary to secure them had to be forwarded early in February these parties have done so, and thus secured for our benefit so large a portion of the whole number coming into the State. These birds have already been successfully in- troduced into Vermont and Massachusetts. It is a migratory bird, similar to the wood- cock and English snipe in its habits, going South to spend the winter, and returning to its former home in the spring to breed, and will be a valuable addition to the game birds of Maine. For a full descrip- tion of the bird see an article upon "Fish and Game" in the Portland Transcript of January 17th. Subscription papers have been circulated to defray the cost of these birds and the necessary expenses of bring- ing them here, and as a sufficient amount has not yet been raised all interested are invited to call upon B. B. Thatcher, Esq., and subscribe something toward the ob- ject.

A Sweeping Victory

THE CITY OF BANGOR

FOR MAYOR BROWN.

FIFTEEN REPUBLICAN COUNCILMEN.

Fifteen Republican Councilmen.

OFFICERS OF FIVE WARDS RE- PUBLICAN.

Wards Two and Seven Almost Carried.

A GRAND DAY'S WORK

The city election yesterday passed off quietly, although much interest was mani- fested in the result in the various wards. The publication of the declination of Mr. Strickland prevented many Democrats from voting, and yet he received more votes than were cast for Mr. Wakefield. Mayor Brown received 954 majority over all. In some of the wards Mr. Wakefield's name was run with the rest of the Repub- lican ticket, but in several wards the Wakefield temperance ticket bore his name at the head of the regular Democratic bal- lots. The contest for Aldermen was very sharp in Wards 2 and 7, in both of which the Republicans did splendid work. In Ward 2 they reduced Jennings' majority from 82 last year to 39, and in Ward 7 Judge Humphrey lacked only three votes of election where the Fusion candidate had 128 majority last year. And as it was the Republicans of Ward 7 elected all three of their Councilmen and the ward officers.

The vote of the city in detail is as fol- lows:

VOTE FOR MAYOR.

	Brown.	Strickland.	Wakefield.	Scat.	Total.
Ward 1,	146	77	20		243
Ward 2,	247	124	24		395

Ward 7,	198	137	59		394

"JOSHUA WHITCOMB." Denman Thomp- son and company will arrive in this city this morning by Pullman train, and to- night will present in Norombega Hall, the famous comedy entitled "Joshua Whit- comb," to one of the largest audiences ever assembled in the hall. Some splendid scenery was shipped from Boston yester- day for use in Bangor, and Manager Hill telegraphed the Buskin Club that he would send a man with calcium lights to give moonlight and sunlight effects during the representation of the play. Everthing has been done that was possible to make this one of the principal dramatic events of the Buskin Club's management. Those who have no seats should make early applica- tion at the box office to-night, as only a small number can be accommodated with standing room. Capt. Small, who has charge of the ushers, asks us to request parties holding checks for seats to wait at the entrance to the aisle until they can be waited upon by an usher, and thus avoid confusion.

FEES OF DOCTORS. The fee of doctors is an item that very many persons are in- terested in just at present. We believe the schedule for visits is $3.00, which would tax a man confined to his bed for a year, and in need of a daily visit, over $1,000 a year for medical attendance alone! And one single bottle of Hop Bitters taken in time would save the $1,000 and all the year's sickness.—Ed. feb26 2wd&w

CUTICURA

From the Hon WM TAYLOR, State Senator of Massachusetts

Messrs WEEKS & POTTER Gentlemen —To say that I am grateful, is only a poor expression of my feelings that it is the best word I can use, for I feel it in every sense of the word I have been a great sufferer with skin diseases for the last twelve (12) years My head and face being covered with sores, I could not rest with the burning heat and itching of the parts affected, and I was confined to my house for weeks at a time My disease has been called Eczema, of an aggravated type, by many physicians, but I doubt if ever fully understood by any of them It was more like a combination of several skin humors I have spent much money seeking a cure and in 1867 I went to Europe and consulted some of the best physicians in London I received temporary relief only, for in the spring it would break out again as bad as ever When I came back to Boston, I was told by many friends that Dr —— (whose reputation for the cure of those diseases was of the highest order) could cure me I waited on the doctor, he prescribed for me I followed his advice for six months, and I can safely say, without any improvement I tried other physicians, and among them Dr ——, of East Boston, and Dr ——, of city proper, but all to no purpose They did me no good, their remedies were so inefficient that at no time did I feel that a cure would result from them

I have swallowed one hundred arsenic pills, 29 grain, and taken bottle after bottle of internal remedies, besides all the external applications I have used, but the effect is the same I became satisfied that I could not be cured, but might be kept from getting worse

Now, about three months ago, Mr Mohan, a gentleman well known to Boston people, called my attention to your CUTICURA and from the wonderful results I would only make trial. He told me of his own experience with it, and persevered on me that I went with him to a drug store and bought two large boxes of Cuticura and some Cuticura Soap and commenced to use it according to the directions There was so much humor lodged within the skin, that as soon as I commenced the use of Cuticura it came to the surface and festered, until vast quantities had come out and greatly intensified my sufferings for about two weeks But I did not mind it as I felt that I was going to get rid of the humor which is the coming to the surface [illegible] After the first two or three weeks use of this remedy I was greatly encouraged by a gradual lessening of the inflammation of a number of small sores

I carefully, faithfully, and cheerfully followed the directions in the letter, feeling that a cure [illegible] until at the present moment, after three months use of Cuticura, [illegible], I can say that I am cured, and I pronounce my case the most remarkable on record I have been so elated over my success that I have stopped men on the street who were afflicted, and told them to get Cuticura and it will cure them This is why I am so grateful to you, for I believe it to be the best and greatest discovery of the age and that it will cure all such diseases [illegible] WILLIAM TAYLOR

John B. P. Wheelden, of Bangor, in the County of Penobscot, Plaintiff
William H Smith, of Brooklyn, in County of Kings, and State of New York, Defendant

In a plea of the case, for that the said Deft. at said Bangor, on the 29th day of August, 1879, hired of the Pliff a certain horse then and there owned by Pliff, to drive from said Bangor, to Belfast in the County of Waldo, and use there, at and about said Belfast, for a week from said 29th day of August, A D 1879, and then drive back to said Bangor, for a certain sum of money, to wit the sum of two dollars per day, and the Pliff then and there delivered to the said Deft the said horse to drive and use as aforesaid, and the said Deft. on the said 29th day of August A D 1879, and the following day, to wit, the 30th day of August, A D 1879 by his servant and agent so carelessly, immoderately and recklessly drove said horse that by reason thereof and for want of due care of the said horse, the said horse was thereby spoiled in his value wholly lost to the Pliff

Also for that the Pliff at Belfast, Waldo County, Maine on the 29th day of August A D 1879 was possessed of a certain mare of chestnut color of the value of four hundred dollars, and being so possessed, thereafterwards, on the same day lost the same, and the same thereafterwards, on the same day came into the hands and possession of the said Deft, yet the said Deft though he well knew the same to belong to said Pliff, yet intending to injure and defraud him the said Pliff, refused to deliver the same to said Pliff, though therefore requested, but thereafterwards on the same day, converted the same to his own use

Writ dated December 13th, 1879
